PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Gig Werks and LiveTiles partner to offer Advanced User Experience and User Interface Solutions for SharePoint

NEW YORK – November 13, 2014 - Gig Werks is proud to announce that it has partnered with LiveTiles to offer advanced solutions that enable organizations to dramatically improve SharePoint's User Experience and User Interface, and to help deliver greater user adoption of the product.

Adoption and ease of use is key to any successful IT Project. Within the intuitive LiveTiles design interface, you can easily create stunning user interfaces using a simple drag and drop method to deliver a rich user experience regardless of where or on what device your users are interacting with SharePoint.

Joe Giegerich, President of Gig Werks, commented "Partnering with LiveTiles offers immediate impact and benefit to a number of our clients. This solution allows clients to boost user adoption and ensure the success of SharePoint initiatives within the organization by easily creating an interface their users are comfortable using. We are very excited for the potential of this partnership and bringing the LiveTiles product to market."

Karl Redenbach, CEO and Co-founder of LiveTiles, commented "We are excited about our partnership with Gig Werks because they understand that unless the end user is consuming the platform, then the platform is destined to fail. UX and UI go hand in hand and LiveTiles provides Gig Werks with a product that absolutely complements their service as a SharePoint solution provider, enhancing user adoption and aesthetic appeal."

About Gig Werks

Gig Werks is an Award Winning SharePoint solution provider with certified expertise across all aspects of SharePoint. Gig Werks understands the true value of SharePoint is delivered through an architecture where the entire feature set works together. While each area of functionality is powerful on its own, the true power of the platform is realized when experts with deep knowledge of the entire product set develop a comprehensive customer solution – where the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. Gig Werks provides clients with secure, connected solutions that streamline business processes and yield maximum returns on investment.
